Why use DisasterAssistance.gov?

You can:

- Look up your address to find out if it’s in a disaster area declared for Individual Assistance.
- Find assistance you may qualify for by answering questions about your needs, or search by federal agency or category.
- Apply online using desktop, mobile, or tablet devices.
- Check the status of your application and get updates by SMS or email.
- Upload documents to support your application.

You can also:

- View declared disasters by state.
- Locate resources in and around your community.
- Find information for immediate needs like evacuation, shelter, food, water, and medical.
- Stay informed with current FEMA news feeds and Twitter updates.

E-Gov Initiative:

Get a personalized list of assistance you may qualify for from 17 federal agencies, including more than 70 forms of assistance.